Remembering Reva Sprung Through Music

It has now been a year and one half since the passing of Reva Sprung, a loving wife and mother, a community leader, a talented musician and a patron of the arts. Those of us who were privileged to have known her can easily picture her in our mind's eye as she delighted in every project she undertook. Whether it was the annual UJA campaign, promoting art exhibitions in the community, or any of the myriad of projects she embraced, Reva's enthusiasm always captured the moment.

In remembrance of Reva, The Sprung Family; Harold, Robert, Yuko, Rosanne, and Bill have established the Reva Sprung Music Therapy Program at the Jewish Home. In establishing the program, Robert, speaking on behalf of the family said, "We all remember Reva Sprung for many great things, among them her love of the arts as a way to share and give back to the community. Music, in particular, was an important part of Reva's life. She studied to become a concert pianist and had a violinist uncle who played chamber music with the likes of Jascha Heifetz. In the final years of her life, as an Alzheimer's patient at the Jewish Home, Reva experienced a new relationship with music. While other aspects of her cognition were affected, her ability to both play the piano and to enjoy music remained intact to the last, and provided enormous comfort and joy to her."

Robert concluded by saying, "these experiences, it turns out, are not unique in Reva's case. The field of music has made great advances in recent years, and has shown how music can make a significant difference in the quality of life among the elderly."

Harold and Reva in earlier days.

The program, developed together with the Sprung family, will include collaboration with Marywood University's music therapy department, a rotation program for students in music therapy, the hiring of a part-time professional music therapist, increasing musical entertainment and the purchase of equipment.

In commenting on the program, Steve Seitchik, President of the Home, thanked the Sprung family for establishing a program that will enhance the quality of the lives of the Home's residents. He said, "This program will keep Reva's lifelong love of music alive and will perpetuate her memory in a most fitting manner."

Steve also noted Harold Sprung's extensive association with the Jewish Home, as a long-standing member of the Board of Directors, a past president and chair of the Home's Finance Committee.

JRC Provides Invaluable Service to the Aging of the Poconos

Under the leadership of Rabbi Yehuda Salkow, The Jewish Resource Center (JRC) of the Poconos provides a home for the senior adults of the Poconos who meet on Thursdays at the Center for meals provided by the Jewish Home. (Cost of a meal is $1.50, sponsored by the Monroe County congregate meal program. This is the only kosher meal program for the aging in the Poconos.) As part of the luncheon program, the JRC arranges for a variety of educational, cultural and health related activities that have been enthusiastically received by the seniors.

Another part of the program provided by the Jewish Home to the aging population of the Poconos is a counseling service for those seniors who may need advice on long-term health care. Angela Tullo, a licensed nurse, keeps in touch with the seniors, makes hospital visits and provides a referral service in assisting them in maneuvering through the intricacies of the health care system.

Angela's services are provided under a grant from the Foundation for the Jewish Elderly of Eastern PA, whose mission is to promote the welfare of the Jewish aging population in Eastern PA. If you are a senior not yet connected with the programming at the JRC, please feel free to call Angela's office at the JRC @ (570) 517-0811 ext. 12.

Social Service Department Update

The Jewish Home is blessed with a favorable reputation in the community. We receive many telephone calls from prospective residents, their families as well as social workers and discharge planners from surrounding health care facilities who echo this sentiment. One of the many contributing factors responsible for the reputation is our social service department which has always provided seven day a week support to our residents and families as well as the highly qualified staff in the department.

The staff of three includes: Theresa Skotleski, MSW, department director, Theresa Fox, BSW and the most recent addition to our department, Todd Kelleher, JD, SSC.

Mr. Kelleher comes to the Jewish Home with a background in long-term care both local and in the Philadelphia area. He not only has a degree from the University of Scranton in Human Services but a Law Degree from Widener School of Law. He currently resides in Philadelphia with his wife Stephanie Kelleher, DO., but is originally from Dunmore. They plan on relocating back to the area within the next several months.

Jewish Home Mythbusters

This article is the beginning of a series written to help dispel some of the misconceptions in the community when they hear the words, "The Jewish Home of Eastern Pennsylvania."

Myth 1: When a person is admitted to the Jewish Home they are in their final stages of life and this is their final destination in life.

Mythbuster 1: Although the facility has provisions for end of life care, the Jewish Home has been specializing in short-term rehabilitation for many years. The focus of care has evolved over time to include rehabilitating residents and returning them home. In fact five years ago the facility was discharging about 2-3 residents to home per month. Today the Jewish Home has doubled the amount of residents discharged to home.

Myth 2: "I could never afford to stay at the Jewish Home."

Mythbuster 2: In fact, most residents can't afford to pay for their stay at the Jewish Home. A significant portion of residents have health insurance coverage through insurers such as Medicare or Blue Cross. This insurance often pays for short-term rehabilitation for up to 100 days and is a medically driven program. These programs pay for therapy services, nursing care, meals, and lodging. To become eligible for these services a person must meet certain requirements for admission which may include a hospitalization. Long-term care is also funded through the Commonwealth's Medical Assistance program. It is based on medical and financial eligibility. There are home maintenance provisions for spouses living in the community so a meeting with the business office may prove informative. If a resident does not qualify for either Medicare or Medicaid, they must pay privately until their assets reach the financial eligibility requirements.

The department conducts a family support group every third Sunday of the month at 2:00 pm in the 1st floor TV room of the Jewish Home. Residents and families are encouraged to stay in touch with the social worker assigned to their respective floors to maintain this important rapport. Any questions please contact Theresa Skotleski, Director of Social Services at 570-344-6177 ext 154.

Does Fido Have a Pet Pass?

Recognizing the therapeutic value of pet visits and at the same time balancing the need to ensure that all pets coming into the facility are suitable to visit with our residents, we require a pet pass for pets visiting at the Home.

The pet pass identifies the pet's name, owner's name and expiration date of the pass. Pet passes are issued by the business office manager to pet owners who submit current vaccination certificates from their pet's veterinarian. We are requesting visitors with pets to present their pet pass to the receptionist upon arrival. The business office manager, Sue Norek, at extension 103 can be contacted for issuance of pet passes and guidelines for pet owners when completing a pet visit. We ask your assistance in making arrangements to obtain a pet pass before bringing a pet into the facility.

If you are interested in ordering a birthday cake please call social services at 344-6177, ext. 154. All cakes must be Kosher.

There are a variety of flavors that can be purchased as well as ice cream and paper products to celebrate your resident's birthday.

Auxiliary Programs

Auxiliary Chatter

To put it succinctly, we are here to serve the residents of the Home. The goal of the Auxiliary is to align with the Jewish Home to help the staff reach this important goal.

In achieving this end, the auxiliary sponsors five resident parties each year, with entertainment and refreshments.

We also present the Home with a major gift each year to benefit our residents. This year we purchased a Snoezelen a la Cart, which provides the residents with tactile, sensory and aroma therapy. This is most effective for those affected with Alzheimer's.

We also provide smaller replacements of worn and/or broken equipment as our treasury allows.

Every year, one of our highlights is to sponsor the Volunteer of the Year Luncheon. This important vehicle allows us to recognize people, groups and organizations for exemplary service to our residents. This year we recognized, along with our organizations, the Wilkes-Barre Branch of the Auxiliary for its many years of devoted service to the Home. They are our partners in our support of the Home and we appreciate them.

As I finish my second year as Auxiliary President, I want to thank my officers and board for their support, and thank them for our success in the accomplishment of the goals of the Auxiliary.

Please support the auxiliary by becoming a member, or by becoming a volunteer or supporting our fundraiser. Whatever role YOU play, our RESIDENTS receive the benefit.

~Barbara Jacobson, Auxiliary President

Nursing Home Week

The business office staff enjoys a ride in our homemade wagon constructed by Jewish Home staff and residents especially for this "down home week".

For one week during the month of May, the Jewish Home was transformed into the "O.K. Corral"! This western-themed event was filled with activities for residents and staff to help celebrate National Nursing Home Week. Activities included entertainment by "The Farmer's Daughter" and the band "Crossfire", as well as dance lessons by Vince Brust. A cattleman's breakfast, a chuck wagon lunch and a baked bean cook-off were only some of the vittles served.

Rabbi Sandhaus served as the official "bean taster", judging recipes prepared by residents vs. staff of the Jewish Home. The contest was deemed a draw!

Activities assistant Bonnie Gething opened each day with a coffee bar featuring a kosher "cup of Joe" and flavored creamers for all to enjoy.

Resident Tobia Gluck enjoys a "rum" and coke after a long day of Boot Scootin' Boogie lessons.

Night shift nursing staff Helen Fowler, Rose Conforti, Liza Golden and Lorraine Ross show their "Cowgirl" spirit as they enjoy festivities in the lobby.

Above and below: Clap your hands and stomp your feet, swing your partner and do-si-do – staff enjoyed various western dance lessons taught by Vince Brust in the lobby, as residents smiled and clapped to the beat.

Maintenance staff member Jerry Sheare and resident Clark Mark are at the bar early one morning singing...“its five o'clock somewhere...”

The Cattleman’s breakfast featured a buffet table of vittles that would satisfy any cowpoke’s hearty appetite.

Ed Kaplan enjoys some good food and some sarsaparilla at the bar...the evening buffet of finger foods was a treat for staff, families and residents at the “Down Home Reception”.

The Jewish Home Scrapbook

Resident Ken Arnovitz engages the men's group as he shares his knowledge and collection of baseball cards.

Tobia Gluck proudly wears her green hat to one of the many breakfast buffets that are offered at the Jewish Home.

Resident Bertha Parette shakes the hand of his Excellency Bishop Timlin at the annual Holiday Mass.

Activities assistant Tiffany Sopko and resident Jack Izen are hard at work putting together a dollhouse that will be donated to a local children's charity.

Spiritual Director Rabbi Bilus grates the potatoes as Miriam Kaplan tells him what to do next during the latke making activity.

and Out and About!*

The Jewish Home Scrapbook

Residents Karen Beppler, Ralph Huss and Tobia Gluck, escorted by activities assistant Tiffany Sopko, enjoy the surroundings at Nay Aug Park.

Activities coordinator Theresa Trapani joins residents Arlene Guido, a friendly server, Mary Mancina, Mary Ann Gutowski and Mary Margitich at an outing to Alfredo's restaurant where they enjoyed some Italian specialties.

CLIP AND SAVE PHONE LIST

"I'm Also A Client"

Rabbi Samuel K. Sandhaus

You may remember the TV advertisement for the Hair Club for Men where Sy Sperling said, "I'm not only the Hair Club President, but I'm also a client". I can now say about Elan Gardens, "I am not only a Director, but I am also a client". Yes, that's correct! I had a mishap that resulted in knee surgery and I needed a place to recuperate. What more appropriate place than Elan Gardens, the residence that I helped plan and build, to convalesce from surgery.

I spent two weeks at Elan Gardens experiencing the services that until then I had only heard about from residents and families. I am trying hard not to be biased or self-serving, but the truth is the truth. The staff is marvelous, compassionate, kind and most of all helping. A call for assistance is quickly responded to and in many cases anticipated. On many occasions, residents would say to me (knowing my position) how grateful they are for Elan Gardens. Where would they be, they would say, and who would be helping them during this time in their lives? The food was excellent with each resident's preferences taken into consideration. My tablemates were truly a delight and my only regret is that I did not have the opportunity to dine at every table. We had wonderful Friday night services led by residents with a few students from Baptist Bible College in attendance wanting to practice their Hebrew reading.

It could be legitimately asked was I given preferential treatment by staff. Some might think so, but I can tell you that my first hand observations were that the service I received was the norm. I extend my appreciation to every staff member who aided in my recuperation, to the board of directors, which provides the means to maintain this fine facility, and to Ilise Rubinow and her senior managerial staff who run the finest facility in NEPA.

Elan Gardens in full bloom.

View of the Administrator Ilise Rubinow

Here at Elan Gardens, we love to make comparisons. We continue to be aware that we provide more services than any other assisted living facilities in Northeastern Pennsylvania. We are certain that the quality with which we provide these services are unequalled as well. Our building and grounds continue to be breathtaking even as we meet the obvious needs of a building that is beginning to age. We are told over and over again by doctors and hospitals that our residents are "obvious" to them because of the way they are cared for by our care giving staff. When prospective residents and their family members come to tour Elan Gardens they are in awe of the facility and the program and services we provide. Our staff members continue to be plentiful and outstanding and are proud of the work they do.

We know that all the above are true and we do love to compare. However, there is one comparison we are somewhat distressed to make and that is in regard to our census. We currently have more openings than we think we should considering our successes. That is where the comparison comes into play. We are exactly where the other local facilities are in terms of occupancy. In addition, when comparing ourselves to other similar facilities we are exactly in the same position according to industry experts.

The lower census has necessitated a very close watch over expenses while guaranteeing that we are not forfeiting any of the quality we are known for. Our staff and administration continues to have a positive attitude because we know that we are the "real deal." If anything our frustration is that we want to be able to extend our services and environment to more individuals for whom it would be of benefit. On this page you will see a special testimonial that speaks to the receiving side of everything we represent.

So why do I take this opportunity to make these very public comparisons? Because I truly believe in everything that we do at Elan Gardens and I am so proud to be a part of it. But also because I hope that you, our readers, are reminded of us when you come across people who would be well served as residents of Elan Gardens.

Lizzy & Miriam Stekel and Sue Zeidman enjoy the Therapy Dogs International.

Membership Experiences Another Successful Campaign

Hyers and Dickstein Lead the Drive

As the 2009-10 Annual Membership campaign draws to a close, results show that the Jewish Home continues to merit the support of close to 1,000 supporters. Together with gifts from the Home's business associates, the campaign raised in excess of $125,000. Gail Dickstein and Betsy Hyers, co-chairs, expressed their appreciation to every donor who contributed to the drive. Dickstein noted that the funds raised allow the Home to continue to provide a high level of service to its 173 residents. "The generosity of our supporters," she said, "demonstrates the commitment people have to the welfare of the aging population." Hyers, likewise, commented that she was gratified by the response and thanked every donor who participated. "We are blessed to live in a community which recognizes the importance of the Jewish Home," she said. Steve Seitchik, President of the Home, thanked both Hyers and Dickstein, for chairing this campaign and credited them for leading a successful drive during a period when fund raising is a bit more difficult. "Thank you for taking on the challenge," he said, "and leading us in another winning drive."
